BEHIND THE SCENES JEAN WITTHUS

When Jean Witthus joined Center National Bank in 1992 as a receptionist, it was quickly evident she enjoyed contact with people. Shortly thereafter, her customer skills and banking knowledge resulted in a promotion to Customer Service Representative, a position she has held ever since.

"I really like meeting people and helping them with their banking needs," she says. "Since I am a native of Litchfield, I know many of them, and it's good to extend these relationships. I especially find it worthwhile helping some of our older customers with their financial situations as they relate to the bank."

Jean graduated from Litchfield High School and attended Ridgewater Community College in Willmar. After working at Anderson Chemical Company for two years, she was a sales associate for a downtown Litchfield retail clothing store, subsequently managing the store and being its main buyer. She worked at Uni-Hydro in Cosmos for a short while before she came to Center Bank.

She enjoys traveling, yard work and walking. She is active in church doing volunteer ministry. She also devotes time to her four grandchildren who live in Eden Prairie: Tyler, 18; Madison, 14; and twins Carter and Kennedy, 11.
